DR. MARLAN CARLSON

Dr. Marlan Carlson's love for performing and conducting music is outshone only by his passion for mentoring young talent. As a professor of music at Oregon State University and as music director of the Corvallis-OSU Symphony Orchestra, he has ample opportunity to teach and empower students to reach their full potential—not just musically but in their family, work, and community. He takes great pleasure in inspiring students to experience the joys of leadership.

Dr. Carlson earned his Doctor of Musical Arts and the Artist's Diploma from the Eastman School of Music at the University of Rochester, New York, and has been both a Fulbright Scholar and a Danforth Fellow. He performed as principal violist in the Heidelberg Staedisches Orchestra, London Symphony Orchestra, and Tokyo Metropolitan Orchestra. From 1988-90 Carlson was resident director of the Oregon Study Abroad Center in Stuttgart, Germany, during which he conducted the Hohenheim Wind Ensemble and played in the Stuttgart Bach Orchestra.

At OSU, Dr. Carlson was chair of the Music Department for 17 years, as well as serving as resident director of study abroad programs in London, England; Cologne, Germany; Siena, Italy; Angers, France; and Vienna, Austria. In 2000, he was presented with the International Service Award by OSU and the Excellence Award by the College of Liberal Arts Advisory Council. Following highly acclaimed concerts in 2001 in Zhengzhou, China, Maestro Carlson returned several times over the ensuing ten years to conduct professional orchestras in other cities, including Shanghai and Tianjin.

In June 2007, Dr. Carlson conducted the National Philharmonic Orchestra of Russia at the studios of Radio Moscow in the recording of a CD featuring three Russian-American pianists. The CD was released by classicalrecords.ru and features concerti of Glazunov, Scriabin, and Tchaikovsky.

STEPHANIE BRANNAN

Stephanie Brannan is finishing up her fourth and last year at Oregon State University and studying oboe. She is double majoring in Music Education and Music Performance. Once completing Winter term here, she will go on to student teach at the Timber Ridge School in Albany. Following graduation, Stephanie plans on getting a job teaching music and giving private oboe lessons.

ELIJAH DURBIN

Elijah Durbin comes from Salem and now lives in Albany. He's a Music and Computer Science double major and plans to keep playing clarinet as a hobby when he finishes college. Outside of music he likes to program and play video games.

MICHAEL ECLEVIA

Michael Eclevia is a baritone studying General Music at OSU. He's interested in pursuing linguistics or cryptologic linguistics in the armed forces. He's served as the assistant conductor for Meistersingers and is the bass section leader for Chamber Choir.

JORDAN GARRETT

Jordan Garrett spent the first 10 years of her life living in San Diego and Los Angeles. After moving with her family to Beaverton, she joined the band and fell in love with music. Jordan is a sophomore majoring in Music Education and studying clarinet with Carol Robe. After graduating, Jordan wants to work with students in lower income schools because she thinks music is powerful and can help students in bad situations. She also believes if they stick to getting an education, it will help them as it did her.

ABRIANNA GOMEZ

Abrianna Gomez is a percussionist from Fresno, California. She is a senior working towards a Bachelor's of Music in Performance. Abrianna will go to graduate school to pursue her dream of being a college percussion director and an active performer.

ANDREA PAULS

Andrea Pauls grew up in Corvallis and began studying cello with Ann Grabe at age 4. She currently studies with Anne Ridlington and is majoring in music at OSU. When not playing cello, Andrea enjoys playing ultimate frisbee, trail running and leading worship at her church.

JACKSON STIVER

Jackson Stiver is from Santa Clara, California. As a fourth-year student he is currently studying Music Education and Trombone Performance under his trombone professor, Carson Keeble. After graduating from OSU, he hopes to continue to pursue music for a Master's in Trombone Performance. His goal is to gain as much musical experience as possible before settling down on a set career. When not practicing trombone, he likes to cook, work out, and climb to stay in shape.

LISANDRO VALDEZ

Lisandro Valdez is from Salem, Oregon. He is a 3rd year Music Education major, currently studying clarinet with Carol Robe. He would like to teach either middle or high school music after college so that more students can experience the joy of playing in a musical ensemble.

MATTHEW ZHENG

Matthew Zheng is from Salem, Oregon and studies violin under Marlan Carlson. He is currently a general engineering major and a music major with a focus in instrumental performance. Matthew enjoys running and listening to music. After graduating, he hopes to continue playing music.

ANDRE ZHU

Andre Zhu is a 5th year Electrical Engineering and Computer Science major from Tigard, Oregon studying piano under Marek Sobieraj. He hopes to continue arranging classical and jazz pieces and composing, as well as improving his drawing skills in the future.
